

Triplt for Business

Simplify Office Travel

Triplt® for Business removes the hassle and inefficiency of organizing office travel for companies that enjoy booking through many different sources. Keep track of who's traveling when and where, and whether travel dollars are being spent wisely. By forwarding confirmations to plans@tripit.com, office managers, travel coordinators and assistants can access all plans in a single dashboard that leverages the same Triplt technology valued by millions of business travelers, while staying connected to employees on the road.

Improve Visibility

- Travel planners see full trip details from the travel dashboard.
- Coworkers use a shared company calendar to know the whereabouts of their colleagues.
- See who's in and out of the office with an online pegboard.
- Get insight into employees' travel activity and overall travel spending anywhere travel is booked, as well as which components of a trip have been booked.
- Uncover overlapping travel or easily identify meeting opportunities.

Triplt for Business shows who's in and out all in one place
