

Advanced Travel Services

Leverage additional functionality for a more robust travel experience

What are Advanced Travel Services?

With Advanced Travel Services, you can add functionality to better manage and coordinate corporate meetings or utilise traditional travel agent support. During deployment for example, you can easily convert GDS systems; manage PNR mapping and setup; and establish various credit card interfaces. Simply put, Advanced Travel Services assist you in maximising the efficiency and value of Concur's travel solution.

Highlights include:

- The ability to manage your meeting spend through the meeting application
- Automated credit card import to simplify and streamline the payment process
- Assistance in the management of profiles

Meeting Management

Taking control of corporate meeting expenses while enforcing internal policies can be problematic. The Meeting Management solution streamlines the coordination of corporate meetings, seamlessly connecting group travel booking capabilities with the entire meeting planning process.

Combining integrated workflows, approval mechanisms, and real-time reporting: Meeting Management saves time and money for organisations by seamlessly managing registration and group travel for profiled (employees) and non-profiled (guests), attendees. Throughout the entire life cycle of the meeting, meeting managers are in complete control having the ability to:

- Set and enforce travel policy for all attendees
- Monitor invitation and attendee lists, including edit, add and remove features
- Facilitate communications to the meeting audience at any given time
- Manage maximum capacities related to room block bookings, special events and scheduled sessions
- Run real-time reports for estimating and planning purposes

Reservation Management

Reservation Management delivers everything your organisation needs to streamline and build your corporate travel programme. Customers can expect increased control of their travel programme whilst still empowering employees to book smarter and make more cost-effective choices.

With Reservation Management, your organisation has access to a full range of travel services, including market-leading online booking technology that reduces costs associated with travel, traditional agency services offering both online and offline support from experienced agents and expert implementation specialists to quickly get you and your travellers up and running.

The Benefits

With Advanced Travel Services, organisations quickly gain greater efficiency by utilising all applicable travel benefits and features. This provides a more expedient return on investment as well as increased employee adoption and productivity.
